KILLING NEAR POUND GAP

Sometime Saturday night, near Pound Gap on the Virginia side of the mountain, Finley Hensley, a taxi driver of Whitesburg, became involved in a difficulty with an East-Jenkins restaurant keeper named John Abzovich, in which the latter was shot and killed. It is said that Hensley, traveling in his taxi toward the Kentucky side of the mountain with Heddy Tyler and three girls in it, when his car went down with a flat tire. For some reason he went out a short distance to a house and when he stepped into it, Abzovich assaulted him, striking him several times. Being unarmed, he called to one of the occupants of the car to bring his pistol. This was done and the shooting took place. Tyler and the girls were arrested and taken to jail at Wise, but Hensley escaped to the Kentucky side of the mountain and, so far as known, has not been arrested, altho Virginia and Kentucky officers have been in search of him. Hensley is a son of James Hensley, residing on Smoot Creek, is about thirty-five years of age and is a veteran of the World War. He has been a taxi driver for several years and is well known in the county. The man killed has resided at East-Jenkins for several years.

Mrs. Sarah Blair

The angel of death visited the home of Grant Blair at Carbon Glow, July 10th, and took his dear companion, Sarah Blair, who was 48 years, 7 months and 4 days old. She professed a hope in the Lord before she died. She leaves nine children, six boys and three girls. She was laid to rest in the Sam Blair cemetery, Jeremiah.

We wish to thank our many friends for their help during the illness and death of our dear mother and wife.

GRANT BLAIR AND FAMILY

A Word to The Voters

To the Democratic Men and Women of Letcher and Perry Counties:

Due to my work as a physician and surgeon and my ambition to relieve the distressed and suffering, it will be impossible to see many of you before the Primary Election. The truth is I rather want to leave this nomination to the free and voluntary action of my friends. If you nominate me as your candidate, I promise you I will wage an aggressive and vigorous campaign for election, during which time I will make fully known my stand on the policies that make for our end of the state and its people.

Again thanking you all for whatever favors shown me, I am,

Very faithfully yours,
DR. L. F. WRIGHT,
Seco, Ky., July 21, 1931.

BLACK EYED

Arch Ison, age about eighty years, died at the home of John Adams, Saturday, and was buried at the Mose Ison cemetery on Sunday.

We regret to learn of the death of Aunt Mary Caudill. She was an angel mother to all. We revere her memory.

Grading on county road from Ulvah to Garner is getting along nicely.

Uncle William Whitaker, of Linefork, is in very poor health. He is being treated by Dr. G. D. Ison.

Dr. S. P. Combs, of Cornettsville, is practicing his profession in our midst for the past week.

The Regular Baptist Church house is being dressed up with a new coat of paint, inside and out, and the road from the highway to the house is being put in first class condition for travel by autos. There is preaching at this place by Baptists the first Saturday and Sunday in each month. Everybody is invited to attend.

Mrs. I. T. Dixon, who has been seriously ill, is improving.

Wm. Rogers visited his son, Vernon, at Neon last Sunday.

W. G. Webb's family is taking their summer vacation at the Pratt Branch farm with Mr. and Mrs. A. Whitaker.

Dr. L. Whitaker, from Cumberland, reports business is falling down.

The funeral of Uncle Tom Dixon will be preached at his old home on Elk Creek, second Saturday and Sunday in August, by Elders W. G. Combs, Willie France, Ira Combs and Ira Mullins. At the same time the funeral of his granddaughter, Gertrude Back, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Baek will be held at the same place.

Dr. G. D. Ison has just returned from a fishing trip to Dix River Dam.

Coy Caudill, of Elisenoed, died here this morning from an operation for appendicitis.

Elizabeth Boatright Answers Last Call

A few days ago, at her home on Camp Branch, Mrs. Elizabeth Boatright, wife of our happy citizen, Rufus Boatright, passed quietly to that happy home where no suffering ever comes. She was a delightful lady and a faithful wife. She leaves a heart-broken husband and five sons, all of whom are grown. She was in her forty-ninth year and had long been a consistent member of the M.E. Church. Being a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Watty Adams, she was largely connected with a number of the most numerous families in the county. Burial was in the Colson Cemetery. We extend sympathies to these our best friends.

"UNCLE JOE"

By LEON P. WEBB

Do you remember Uncle Joe Who in the mystic long ago Would meet you at the limestone altars And greet you with his welcomer smiles; Help you down and nitch the mule And ask you how things were at school; Take down your turn, and better still, Pack it for you into the mill?

Uncle Joe would bid you sit. Mind you how the time would flit While you waited for your turn. Many things you wished to learn. What made the contraption go? That you were wise as Uncle Joe! You would watch the drunken reel Of the ancient water wheel; Watch the waters, churn'd to foam, Watch the breakers go and come; Watch the grating millstones roll. While Uncle Joe would take his toll.

And when too soon your turn was ground, Uncle Joe would come around And put the sack upon your head, Help you up and bid you speed.

Alas, alas! the days of yore When parting friends are gone before And Uncle Joe sleeps on the hill. A memory is the water wheel— The mills of God have took their toll And Uncle Joe—peace to his soul!

NOTE: The author says, "Those of your readers who remember Uncle Joe Craft may think kindly of these lines."

SMALL FISH FURNISHED; THE BOYS WILL TRAMP AGAIN

Ray Applegate, Supt. of the Gatliffe Fish Hatchery, on Monday, July 20, delivered to the Letcher Fish and Game Commission one large truck load of the different species of bass in the waters of the Kentucky and Cumberland rivers, without any cost to the club.

The Kentucky Fish and Game Commission is doing all it can to restock our streams with fish suitable to the waters of the county and the citizens of the county should cooperate with them in every way they can in protecting these fish until they are of legal size before attempting to take any of them from the waters.

We know of no better place in Kentucky than in the waters of our mountain streams for fish, and with a little protection we would have plenty of fish at home and we would not have to go to some other state or some other part of Kentucky every time we wanted to fish.

James Bentley has accepted a position with Passmore Pharmacy, Main Street.

Judge James Caudill, of the Neon police court, was a pleasant business caller on the Eagle.

Our great and clever friend, Bill Brown of Lee, was in to fix his subscription, just like any gentleman should.

Mr. and Mrs. Stacey, of London, and Sam Collins were the luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Combs on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Cundiff and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fulmer were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Combs on Saturday evening.

The monthly meeting of W. M. U. of the Baptist Church met at church on Wednesday. Mrs. French Hawk had charge of the program. Special contributions were sent out to members.

We extend deep sympathies to our good friend Joe Halcomb and his excellent family on account of the severe loss they have lately sustained. Heaven hath no sorrows that earth will not heal in due season.

The Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian Church will have a lawn party on the lawn at the Presbyterian Church, July 26th, at 6:00 p. m. The younger people plan to have many attractions of interest and are extending an invitation to every one to attend this social.

My Garden

By D. MULLINS

The little lane is calling me. Would you like to go Down to my flower garden Where the purple lilies grow? There the moon is always shining, Shining so serene and clear. There the souls of flowers seem to be.

And the song birds you may hear. If you would like to listen When all nature is in tune, Then come to my flower garden On a beautiful day in June. The roses and their fragrance, Of which you may partake, Are far more lovely Than the beauties of the lake.

Mrs. Mantie Whitaker and family and Mrs. Sam Collins and sons returned Saturday for the past three years. We welcome the young lady home again.

Merchants Louis Budnick, of the Leader Department Store at Neon, Jack Mack, of the East Jenkins, Leader Department Store, and E. W. Whitaker, East Jenkins barber, were pleasant business callers on the Eagle. Business, it seems, is rather beginning to pulsate again in that section of the county.

LOCAL NEWS

Rev. Grant and family, of Oklahoma, are guests at the home of Rev. Charles Grant.

Mrs. George Zimmerman and Henrietta Rose left Monday for a few days visit in Lexington.

We are late with the Eagle, due to heavy rains of job printing, things we had to do if we breathe.

The fine, new home of Harvey Hogz, in the lower section of the city, will soon be completed and ready to be occupied.

Mr. and Mrs. Astor Hogz and son and Doll Craft returned on Thursday from Frank Lick Springs.

Mrs. Bradley Combs and children, of Frankfort, are visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Combs.

Elbert Ward, very greatly improved in health, was down from Neon, and is starting a big sale at his store at Neon, last several days. See back page of the Eagle this week.

After all that oil placed on the Mayo Trail and Kyva above the city looks real good. At least it will be a blessing to the citizens along that way, so far as the clouds of dust are concerned.

It is claimed here that the Consolidation Coal Company at Jenkins is now running four at five days each week. The Letcher Coal Company, at Lee, is running an average of five days each week. Very little is doing yet at Fleming and Haymond, and it is dull business at Marlow and Sandlick.

Last Saturday evening a very severe and destructive rain and wind storm struck here and considerable scope of surrounding territory, blowing down trees and flattening cornfields. In some sections, it is reported, some cornfields were destroyed.

Grocery people complain that their trade is falling off. Well, when every family that was worth a fiddler's mill-dam has a fine garden, plenty of fruit and the like right at home, why shouldn't it fall off? And pawpaws, possums, pumpkins and sweet potatoes are smiling all about. Prosperity! Shoot!

Mrs. Ellen Fleming and her sister, Mrs. Mary Dulaney, of Marshall Branch, old friends of the editor, were pleasant visitors in the city Monday. These two ladies are the daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wright (Black) who formerly resided on Marshall's Branch. These ladies and Alfonso, their son, are the only ones of this family now living.

Prof. H. H. Harris and Mrs. Harris are in Lexington at the home of their son, Willard. Prof. Harris is recuperating from an operation performed in Louisville, and is doing splendidly. His operation requires that he return to the hospital within the next month for a second part of the operation. He expects to stay in Lexington until that time.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Fields and daughter, Hazel, returned to their home here after attending the wedding of their son, Glenn, in Covington on Sunday July 19. They were also accompanied by their daughter, Beulah, who has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. Arthur Smith in Pittsburgh for the past three years. We welcome the young lady home again.

Merchants Louis Budnick, of the Leader Department Store at Neon, Jack Mack, of the East Jenkins, Leader Department Store, and E. W. Whitaker, East Jenkins barber, were pleasant business callers on the Eagle. Business, it seems, is rather beginning to pulsate again in that section of the county.

Miss Squires Entertains

Miss Eva Dean Squires was the charming host to a delightful party at the home of her parents Tuesday evening of last week. The spacious living rooms were artistically decorated with lack-o-lanterns and cut flowers—dancing and bridge were participated in. Those enjoying the delightful occasion were: Misses, Nazareta Hays, Mable Blair, Inez Cooke, Pansy Webb, Eudora Lewis, Wilma and Evelyn Back, Eunice Blair, Virginia Vermillion, Margaret Collins, Maude Day, Edith Baker, Virginia Combs, Robert Webb, Hazel Fields, Caroline Kilgore, Messrs, Lige Goodwin, Emily Clay, Hubert Barber, Frank Broughman, Ferdinand Moors, Bill Vermillion, Fallace Fields, Loren Bentley, Olan Cooke, Frank and Kelly Fletcher, Roland Price, Clyde Woodford, Woodrow Whitaker, Gus Collins, E. Seter, Ward Renaker, Bill Ewin, Joe Reynolds, Walter Kries, Hillard Hall; Mrs. R. F. McClure, Out-of-town guests were: Bill Jacobs and Cyril Fields, Cumberland; Miss Margaret Baker and Miss Kathleen Morgan, Hazard; Bruce Begley, London.

We regret to record the death of Aunt Mary Caudill, Mrs. Sam Blair of Jeremiah, and Uncle Arch Ison of Blackey. The roll of the old veterans and a great civilizational in our country grows larger daily "over yonder."

Owing to the heavy rain near dark Wednesday evening, Senator Brock failed to meet his speaking appointment here. He will speak at the courthouse here at 1 p. m. next Tuesday. On the day before he will speak to the voters at Barnett's Bath, m. and at Eolia the same day. Near Farrington, at 10 day at 1 p. m. Mr. Brock will be glad to see as many of his friends as possible at all these speaking. Read what he has to say to the voters this week in the Eagle.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to our relatives in and around Whitesburg who came over to Big Stone Gap, Va., to attend the funeral of our dear son and brother, Carlos, who quit the walks of men on July 9, 1931, at the age of 26, and we are thankful to our friend, Hobart Combs, who was mindful enough of his schooling to motor to Big Stone Gap to be at the sick boy's bedside and to offer a prayer in his behalf. And we are exceedingly thankful to the pastor of the M. E. Church of Whitesburg and his good mother for accompanying Mr. Combs, and for the wonderful petitions they sent up in behalf of the dear boy. We are not only thankful to Hobart, the Rev. Grant and his dear mother but to all our Christian friends at Whitesburg who offered for Carlos a special prayer at their prayer services.

We wish to pause here to again thank the good people at Big Stone Gap and Appalachia for the wonderful aid rendered us during the long sickness and death of our dear son and brother.

J. S. PENDLETON AND FAMILY.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Haymond and daughter, Mary, Mrs. Angelina Pelazzari of Fleming, Mrs. F. E. Emory Frazier and Mrs. Estevan W. Cornett spent several days enjoying themselves at Gordons Camp on Cumberland river.

Mrs. Stephen Combs and daughter, Carol, and Mrs. Edith Lewis and son, Teddy, were hosts at the home of Mrs. Stephen Combs on last Saturday to a mother and baby luncheon. Guests included, Mrs. Joe Adams and son, J. R.; Mrs. Finley Cise and son, Bob; Mrs. Charlie Watts and son, John; Mrs. Howard Adams and son, John; Mrs. Shirley, and Mrs. Arthur Fulmer, all of Hazard; Mrs. R. Dean Squires, of Whitesburg.

AGED MOTHER CALLED HOME

The Angel of Death passed again over Whitesburg, some days ago and plucked another veteran mother of the old days and carried her precious soul to the realm of perpetual joys. This time the choice fell on Aunt Mary Caudill, widow of the late Rev. Henry R. S. Caudill, and the mother of County Clerk, Cro C. Caudill. Aunt Mary was in her eighty-second year and had been in extremely poor health for several months. She had been a faithful and consistent member of the Old Baptist Church at Big Cowan a long time, and was a lady loved by all who knew her. Besides her son, Cro, she leaves three living daughters, Mrs. Martha Adams and Mrs. Phoebe Combs, residing in Whitesburg, and Mrs. Hannah Hall, of Versailles. Besides these she leaves a great number of relatives and friends who will sadly miss Aunt Mary. To all, the Eagle extends sympathies. Memorial services for the deceased were conducted here, after which the remains were tenderly laid to the side of her deceased husband in the old cemetery near the mouth of Little Colly on Rockhouse.

THE BIG CAUDILL REUNION COMING SOON

On Sunday, September 13th, the Caudill families in Letcher County and from everywhere else will hold their second reunion this year in Whitesburg. It is to be the one biggest event of the year and with clear skies and September breezes blowing, thousands of people from the county and from near and near will meet and join in the exercises. Speaking of the Caudill family is speaking of the Caudill family. Older as well as the younger generations in the mountains, as well as over a wide scope of the state, are invited. Remember the date, September 13th, and join the parade.

The Eagle is just finishing a very beautiful little booklet of the minutes of the Guerrant Presbyterian Churches, and we welcome the opportunity to serve these very excellent people who are such a great force along religious and educational upbuilding in our old Eastern Kentucky hills.

LOST

Three weeks ago, Mr. O. L. Standard, of Huntington, W. Va., lost a little portfolio or small case while in Whitesburg. Small reward will be paid the finder when returned to M. E. French Store in Whitesburg.

The quarterly group meeting of W. M. U. will meet on Pine Mountain for an all-day meeting on Saturday, July 25. All members are invited.

Well the circus came and went and as is the usual rule on circus days in Whitesburg, it rained and rained. There is a dreadful dearth of loose change anyway and but few people went out to spend what little they had. The mud and rain saved the money.

Harrison B. Johnson

REPRESENTATIVE

97th Legislative District

Composed of Perry and Letcher Counties.

Republican Primay, Aug. 1

Dear Friends and Voters:

Let us bear in mind that when we pick up the "stencil" and make our cross mark opposite some candidate's name on August 1, 1931, that we are like the "Midnight Ride of Paul Revere" determining the fate of a county, state or nation. Since having canvassed Perry and Letcher counties thoroughly, I feel fully confident of my nomination and I shall return to you by way of just asking any favor or trust you place in me by placing a cross in square after the name of Harrison B. Johnson on your ballot.

I thank you,
Harrison B. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Shafter Davidson returned from a pleasant visit with Mr. Davidson's father and mother in Jackson County. They also visited friends at Berea, Richmond and Lexington and ended with a spin out to Natural Bridge.

Harrison B. Johnson, candidate for representative from the Letcher-Perry district, was telling the voters of this community last week why they should vote for him.

Recently a number of people from this section motored to Mt. Vernon, Ky., where church services were conducted and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dixon were baptized into the fellowship of the Conway Baptist Church. The crowd from this county included Eld. Ira Mullins, N. R. Day, Pearl Dixon, Hilbert Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dixon and Jimmie. Also Eld. J. W. A. Stallard of Wise, Va., and Eld. Ballard Baker, of Cumberland. A number of people were also present from Lincoln and Pulaski and Laurel counties.

Dr. W. T. Cox and W. R. Jordan have just returned from a very pleasant vacation spent in Canada. Also Ivan Mullins, H. C. Forgy, Henry Wright, S. E. Looney, of Jenkins; Dr. E. K. Munn, of Van Lear, are spending their vacations on British territory. Part of those mentioned above have returned and part are still enjoying the beautiful scenery, grand highways and cool breezes of our sister nation. Dr. Cox is carrying a sun-tan equal to that obtained in the land of sunshine and flowers—Florida. We didn't know they had that much sunshine in Canada. We thought it was mostly moonshine.

Wonderful church services were conducted at Bethel Church here last week-end by Eld. Austin Mercer, Joe Hall, Calvin Swindall, Ira Mullins and Ballard Baker. It was the funeral of Aunt Lucy Mullins.

E. E. Hollyfield and C. B. Adams were the dinner guests of H. P. Coates last Wednesday. Virgie Dixon, of Mt. Vernon, visited relatives and friends in

SENATOR BROCK SPEAKS TO THE VOTERS

To the Voters of the 33rd Senatorial District, Kentucky: You will observe this is a very short, plain statement. I make it so because I want you to read it, and I want to state the concise, plain, simple truth.

The office of State Senator, financially speaking, is not worth seeking, but someone who is able to do so must be sent to attend to the business of the people; one who is sufficiently intelligent, alert, courageous, honest and trained to enable him, or her, to meet, confer, discuss and debate, if found necessary, with the shrewdest men or both political parties in Kentucky.

My friends, I realize and remind you that there is after my political scalp one of the most powerful political gangs ever combined together in our part of the state, and they do not even live in our Senatorial District, but they are modellers and interlopers who have come into our home district and have backed me into "my own chimney corner" and there is but one thing left for me to do, and that is to "back, bite and snarl" until that avarencious gang is decisively whipped. I cannot whip them out without the help of the masses of the voters. They do not seek to help you, but to crush me, and for no other reason than the courage I showed in the determination to serve honestly, the best interests of the people who sent me to the Senate, rather than be made a plant tool for their personal whims. Saturday, August 1, go to the polls who sought to use my vote against and register your wishes by voting what I was, and still am, convinced, for me.

I shall be grateful to you for an opportunity to continue to serve. Respectfully,
HIRAM M. BROCK.

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that I have known Senator Brock for a good many years and have carefully watched his attitude in the Senate of Kentucky, with reference to legislation, in the interest of the Colored Race, and I must, without prejudice or reference to any opponent, say for Senator Brock, that he has always been one of the finest friends and has shown the kindest sympathies for all the problems affecting the Colored state, that we have observed in our state.

He has supported every appropriation and stood for the largest amounts affecting our colored institutions. I have never seen a more ardent and finer friend of the Colored Race.

Courtney C. Wells For Representative

To the Democratic Voters of Letcher and Perry Counties:

I am a candidate for Representative in the Kentucky Legislature from your district, subject to your action at the coming August primary election, and kindly solicit your support. I am a young man and was reared and educated among you. I stand dedicated to the common people and if given an opportunity, will be glad to serve them. Kindly go to the polls in the primary and cast your support for me. If you give me this nomination I will make fine fight of my life to win in November. Our hill country needs representation in Kentucky's law-making department, and if I am elected will be found earnestly and honestly on the firing line for our district. Again, I solicit your support.

Very truly yours,

COURTNEY C. WELLS,
Hazard, Ky.

CORBETTE BROWN ANNOUNCES

To the Republican Voters of Letcher and Perry Counties . . .

Some of you have already learned that I am asking for the Republican nomination for Legislature from your district. Perry County, in which I reside, is, according to previous arrangements, entitled to this nomination. I was born and reared in Letcher County and am a son of David Brown, a man known and respected by a great number of you. Through him and my mother, who is a daughter of Alamander Whitaker of Blackey, I am related to a great number of you and your best citizens. I was reared on a farm and have known nothing but work all my life and know how laboring people struggle for their earnings. I have been doing all in my power for my people and district all my life, and I want to continue to work for you. In the next session of the State Legislature our great state will stand in need of men of brains, muscle and fighting qualities. If I am nominated, I will win in November. You Republicans, any candidate to name the member and people of common judgment know they will do it. Long promises of what I will do in the way of legislation if I am nominated are vain now and these I will not make. No man can take the proper view of a situation till he is in the ground. My friends, nominate and elect me and I promise you now you will not be disappointed. I have three opponents for this nomination and so far as I have knowledge, they all are gentlemen. On August 1st please go to your voting places and cast your votes for me. I shall always thank you for this. Again kindly soliciting the support and confidence of all, I am,

Very respectfully,
CORBETTE BROWN,
Hazard, Ky.

5. For any law that would aid the educational advancement of the colored people of Kentucky and especially those in Letcher and Perry counties.

8. For a law to prevent banks from becoming insolvent in the state of Kentucky.
9. For the repeal of any useless and worthless laws, as we have too many on the statute books today.

You will like the price★ as well as the quality...

What must you pay for the car you would like to own? Can you get a car well built, fast, easy to drive and good to look at—for the price you want to pay?

Indeed you can—for in Pontiac you get so much for your money. It is an outstanding General Motors value.

For instance, if you owned a small car in the past, you will find you can buy the fine Pontiac today for about what that small car cost you. Yet what extra value Pontiac gives you!

One fine thing you get is a 60 h. p. motor that is smooth and quiet at all times. It is a large motor, and so does all you ask with ease. And you can trust it to work that way as long as you have the car.

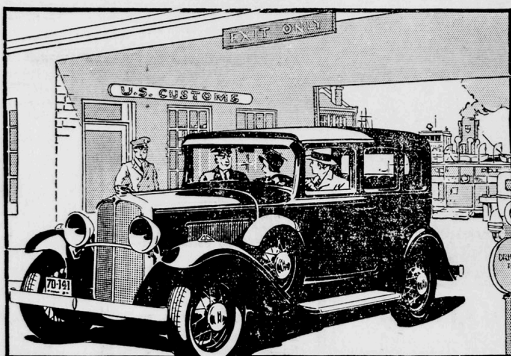

Then you will get a fine new Fisher body which is built to shut out heat, cold, rain and noise. The seat springs are deep —the cushions soft. Real mohair and whipcord give the style and long wear you want for pride and lasting value.

You will find the Pontiac very comfortable to ride in. There are rubber cushions at 43 points in the chassis—a fine-car feature which takes up most of the road shocks. Also there are four hydraulic shock absorbers to add to your comfort.

Your friends will say that Pontiac's lines and color and finish make it a car to be proud of. People will turn to watch it as you drive by. You will feel that you have bought fine-car value at a very low cost.

Of course you may say that we think more of our car than you might! Then why not drive the Pontiac and find out just how well it lives up to what we say about it? Any Oakland-Pontiac dealer will be glad to let you take a Pontiac, whenever you are ready to make the test.
